

CEPFA REVIEW

No. 7
13.07.2018

I SPEAK FRENCH

ET EN PLUS,
JE PARLE
FRANÇAIS
EN ARMÉNIE!

The Embassy of France in Armenia arranged a contest titled "Besides, I Speak French".

A first-year student from Tailors Department Anush Khambekyan took part in it and reached the semifinal with other 12 students. The assignment was to create a video, in which a participant had to introduce him- or herself in French. The semifinal was an interview.

The contest has become a good opportunity for French learners to brush up their language and try themselves on a new level.

PRACTICAL COURSE IN POLAND

German program of Vocational Education and Training Association initiated a Culinary Competition.

The prize for five winners from Armenia's vocational colleges was a trip to a vocational college in Skierniewice, Poland.

A second-year student from French-Armenian Vocational Education Center Robert Hakobyan became the winner. The visit to Skierniewice let students learn about culture of Poland, its cuisine; the students got a chance to share experience with their young Polish colleagues.

YOUTH OPPORTUNITIES

The students of the Center volunteered for YOUTH OPPORTUNITIES FAIR. It was financed by EU that arranged that public event within the frame of its program "EU4Youth: Better Skills for Better Future".

The goal was to gather representatives from various fields who are willing to offer vacancies, volunteering, exchange and other programs to the youth.

The students from the Center were involved as volunteers and supported the event coordinators. It was a good opportunity for the students to get useful information, find new contacts and stimulus for further self-education, as well as realize the importance of volunteering.

VICTORIES OF MAY

On the 9th of May some students of the Center with a teacher of Military Education visited Gerasim Harutyunyan, a veteran of the Great Patriotic War 1941-1945. He was a soldier of the 89th Tamanyan division that reached Berlin.

The veteran was excited to meet the students and tell them about each award he got and a story related to every medal.

"If one has human conscience, honesty and kindness, then that person will be a success, because everyone's mission is to be a good man", believes the veteran.

VARIETY OF THREADS

Nvard Gevorgyan, a trainer from ATP (Armenia Tree Project) Charity Foundation was invited to deliver a presentation on threads and fibres, their advantages and disadvantages, some historical facts.

The usage of natural fibres was performed from ecology perspective.

The trainer said that manufacturing of natural fibre has a negative impact on ecology. In conclusion the trainer turned to the audience with an appeal to buy less clothes. It will help to preserve natural resources.

FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT

A football tournament opened sports events of the present semester.

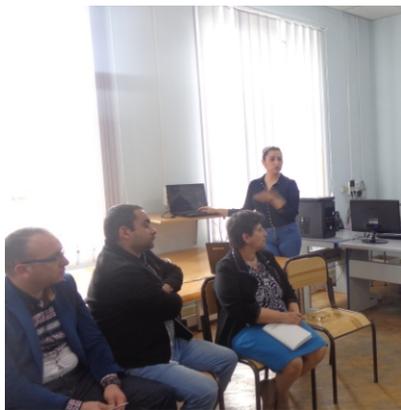

Football teams were selected from first-, second- and third-year students. They competed in semi-final. The final game defined the first, the second and the third prize winners. The students were full of spirit of competition and joy.

EFFICIENT TRAINING

The discussion on "Efficient Training" was about advantages and disadvantages of modern education. The invited psychologist saw the most important task of modern education in revealing 3 key issues: before every lesson a teacher should definitely understand what students will learn, how they will learn and how they will apply the acquired knowledge.

By the end of training the teachers came up to a common conclusion: they must reveal students' abilities and talents.

CEREMONY CLOSING THE YEAR

By the end of the year the Center arranged an event that summed up this year's achievements.

It was opened with a humorous song performed by teachers and students of the Center. Next came a competition that checked participants' skill level. It was followed by a parade of stylish haircuts - classical, elegant, sports-like - created by the student from Hairdressers department. Some of the models were kids from 5-13.

The teachers' and students' mutual understanding became more obvious through dances, songs, friendly discussions and nice wishes.

The most proactive students of the year were rewarded, and the best graduates were awarded with certificates of achievements.

FINAL EXAMS

HAMOV-HOTOV YEREVAN

Yerevan Summer 2018 is a three-month period full of events and festivals. One of them is HAMOV-HOTOV YEREVAN. It is a food festival demonstrating various dishes cooked in ancient Armenia when celebrating holidays.

Thus, the Center performed St. Sargis day – a religious holiday of love. St. Sargis is recognized as a patron saint of the young. At the food festival the counter of the Center was decorated with relevant symbols of that holiday – a love tree, salty bread, pokhindz, halva and other sweets from ancient Armenian cuisine.

UNFORGETTABLE DAY

A group of proactive students from the Center who had actively participated in the Center's life during this year were rewarded with a trip to St. Gevorg church and Sagmosavank monastery.

It was another opportunity for them to come closer to national values and have fun with college mates. It was a nice day full of picturesque landscapes, marvelous liturgy and friendly dinner.

A TEAM OUTING TO DILIJAN

By the end of successful completion of a school year, the teachers and administrative staff of the Center arranged a nice trip to Hagartsin – a monastery located at a distance of 18 km from Dilijan, Tavush marz.

Such outing causes aesthetic pleasure by visiting historical sites and at the same time enhances healthy team relationship.

