

Career and Entrepreneurship Fair

The students of the Center were among the participants of U.S. Embassy-funded event within the frame of Global Entrepreneurship Week (GEW) held in «Armenia Marriott». They presented their hand-made works and delivered master classes. Working up on the spot, future dental technicians demonstrated the stages of work. The whole process drew visitors' attention and was very inspiring.

The career fair stimulated and strengthened the students' belief in their professional pathway.

Healthcare and Pharmacy Expo 2018

The Dental Technicians were present at an international exhibition «Healthcare and Pharmacy Expo 2018». Company directors, scientists, investors, entrepreneurs, specialists who work in the sphere of medical products and service were among the visitors and participants of the exhibition.

That Expo was a platform for the students to learn about innovations and the latest equipment of the field.

A Visit to a Puppet Exhibition

Can you make puppets out of trash? The students from the Tailors' department visited a puppet exhibition. They were demonstrated puppet making techniques and were explained puppets cultural value.

The students played a game «Armenian Ethnic Puppets» and were awarded a certificate «Puppets of Nuri» (Nuri-Nuri means rain bride. In old times these dolls were used to ask rain from the sky on hot days or during drought. They also came to symbolize abundance and fertility).

Highly Qualified Professionals

The cooperation between Veolia Djur CJSC and CEPFA has given its first results. Two-month courses of theory and practice were a success for Veolia Djur inspectors who enhanced their professional skills. The final exam estimated their professional development. All the trainees received certificates.

The director of the Center Gohar Grigoryan and Commercial Manager of "Veolia Djur" CJSC Armen Durgaryan once more emphasized the importance of this training, industriousness of the participants that is to result in satisfaction of the customers.

A Tour to France

"A Tour to France" was a presentation prepared within the Geography lesson. All those present were on a virtual excursion round France, its large cities and islands, got interesting information on the country population etc.

Computer Skills

The second-year students from Tailors' department demonstrated their computer skills achieved at the Computer classes and presented interesting topics on fashion and tailoring in PPT format.

Volunteering

As everybody knows, volunteering is a career-oriented opportunity and in general it is considered to be an activity of an individual or a group provided without any financial gain. It is a source to develop professional skills. Besides, it teaches kindness and makes our life more human. Trying to educate volunteering culture in our students the teachers of the Center helped them to take part as volunteers in a training "Entrepreneurship Ideas Lab".

The goal of the training was to teach entrepreneurial skills and provide jobs for the young in Armenia, develop their business thinking and entrepreneurial ideas.

A Brain Game

”What? Where? When?” is a well-known intellectual game that has been very popular since 1970s in the former Soviet states. This intellectual quiz played at the Center was to reveal students' logical and analytical thinking.

The game was full of discussions and emotions. The winner-team was awarded souvenirs.

Practical Training

A Hearty Welcome to the Seniors

Respect for the seniors is the principle element of bringing up a decent generation. So it has already become a tradition to share happy moments of the most favorite holiday with them.

The day on the New Year Eve was warmed by the presence of the senior from a retirement home N1 in Yerevan. The students of the Center served lunch to them, sang and danced.

The guests enjoyed both the meal and the performance. The praise, advice and wishes of the respectful guests filled our hearts with empathy and made us be more delicate and generous.

Masquerade

That day was colorful and picturesque. Heroes from cartoons and fairy tales... Wishes of peace to army recruits... Election of the King and the Queen of the day...

Creative, innovative, contemporary, humorous and interesting performances were judged and highly estimated by the competition jury.

Happy New Year! Let the miracle become true in everyone's life!
